Report: A disastrous result, mainly due to the absence of John Beasley, who missed the match after getting too pissed down the Polo club the night before. This meant reserve keeper Gino Pacelli had to play out on the pitch for the first time since he was a 9-year-old! and subsequently causing Rovers to lose their 'shape' by playing an unfamiliar 4-3-3 formation. The long journey to Molesey in Surrey with an 8.30.a.m. meeting time didn't help, and although A.F.C. Maze were a reasonably well-organised side, they were the sort of team we would have beaten comfortably with John Beasley playing (and no doubt one or two substitutes would have come in handy - we didn't have any!)
