Report: Due to some feeble excuses (and a few genuine ones) meaning something like 10 'regular' players were unavailable, we only just managed to scrape a side up which included a certain Laurence Hughes playing a rare game with only 4 players in our line-up who could be classed as regulars from our side of last season. Despite this, and people hardly knowing each others' names, we still managed to go 3-1 up against a full strength and much improved Cuffley side (who also had three substitutes - we only had one) before two silly own goals from Gary Southam and Kevin Dedman let them back into it as we tired badly in the 90° heat.
