MANAGER'S REPORT

Having won two tough matches in the London Junior Cup we were drawn away to Dees Reserves in the 3rd round and had to make an early morning trip south of the river to Mitcham. Fortunately, everyone turned up on time and the kick off was only delayed by the referee who insisted on enforcing the new sock tape rule. Dees Reserves were a strong physical side but the referee didn't enforce the free kick laws as stringently as the sock tape law and we struggled to keep possession when faced with the physical challenges. However, we took the lead after 12 minutes when Danny Hagan's corner deceived the keeper in the strong wind and went straight in. We had a couple of scares at the back but managed to keep our lead until half time. In the second half Jack Bangs put us 2-0 up finishing well from George Stahlmann's header and it seemed like we would manage a comfortable win. However, Dees pulled a goal back with 15 minutes to go and tried everything to get an equaliser but Simon Jackson was in fine form again in goal and we held on for a 2-1 win to put us through to the 4th round.
