Report: Fielding an unchanged outfield starting line-up, we produced another good performance, but we should have actually won by a greater margin even though Hayes All-Stars hadn't been beaten for 21 matches, a statistic which shows that the Asian Sunday League (in which they play) is obviously nowhere near the standard of our League. However, we could have thrown the game away during the second half as it wasn't until the 88th minute that Kevin Dedman scored an excellent second goal for us to kill the game off.
