MANAGER'S REPORT

I named a squad of 16 for our first pre-season friendly against Inter Trac from the Barnet Sunday League. Half an hour before the kick-off time only 8 players had arrived at the venue with 5 dropping out of the squad and 3 late. Fortunately, the referee failed to attend so a replacement referee was called out of retirement which gave time for our 3 late players, Garry Cover, Daniel Daley and Ben Keating, to arrive and John Scouller and Ivan Bass to be called up to the substitutes bench. Our opponents had a full squad with substitutes and supporters and started the game strongly. We played reasonably well defensively with Garry Cover in good form in goal. We didn't create many chances at the other end but 0-0 at half time was a decent start to the season. The first goal came after 52 minutes when a long range effort was tipped onto the bar by Garry only to rebound in off his back for an own goal. The nearest we came to an equaliser was a similar effort from Jack Bangs which also bounced down off the bar but it missed the keeper and came out. At the other end Inter Trac had several good chances but Garry produced a string of saves to keep us in the game. I changed the formation in the last ten minutes as we pushed for an equaliser and Lexton Harrison lobbed the keeper to equalise with 3 minutes to go. There was still time for Garry to pull off two more fine saves before the final whistle to earn us a 1-1 draw.
