Report: With Rosemill having lost their previous six matches this looks like another dreadful performance, but we actually played really well until Gary Southam got injured in the 76th minute and had to be taken to hospital, as that effectively left us down to 'eight men' even though we still had ten on the pitch! That was because Stavros Elia had a bit of a 'mare' in goal and was at fault for both goals while Treasure MacCarthy was 'out of his head on drugs!' (legal ones though...for a tooth abcess which had seen him hospitalised the day before). With Manager Trevor Hughes attending a wedding in Cardiff and four regular players missing (through some dubious excuses in some cases) Saturdays) saved everything we fired at him, while Rosemill had three good substitutes whereas we didn't have any and because of that, we are now left in a mid-table position with just the third place spot to fight for.
