

exchanges afterwards, with most players seemingly blaming Trevor Hughes's tactics and formation....in hindsight of course !!
As it turned out, we eventually ended up being awarded all three points from this match as Rangers brought on substitute Owen Coll at Half-Time for his debut despite his registration not having been confirmed by the League in time, Coll being an ex-Republic of Ireland Under-21 International and a regular with the likes of AFC Bournemouth, Aldershot Town & Canvey Island before quitting the Semi-Professional game earlier this season due to a knee injury. (Not that his presence on the pitch was necessarily the reason for Rangers making such a spectacular comeback...it was more a case of our own defensive inadequacies !)
